REASONS FOR THE NEED TO EXTEND THE DATE OF PUBLICATION OF THE BUSINESS RESCUE PLAN

1. The Practitioner was off sick for a period of a week and a half and returned to work on 10 April 2018, which resulted in various delays with regards to the finalisation of various outstanding issues that impact on the business rescue plan.
2. The Company requires post commencement finance ("PCF") to enable it to deliver on the existing customer contracts and to fund new and prospective contracts. The Practitioner has approached financial institutions and the existing shareholders of the Company to secure PCF. The required PCF has almost been secured and the various parties require a further period of two weeks to finalise the various outstanding items before the PCF will be made available to the Company.
3. The Practitioner requires certainty with regards to PCF and is unable to publish the business rescue plan before securing the required PCF. The secured PCF, together with the salient terms thereof, will be incorporated in the business rescue plan soon after conclusion of the relevant PCF agreements.
